

MEHTIMÄKI MULTIPURPOSE STADIUM

Markku Korjonen
architect

Architect office Lappalainen & Korjonen corporation, since 1994.

THE PERILÄ AND MERI-RADIONPOLKU BRIDGES

Esko Rechartt
M.Sc. (Tech.)

Rechartt is Head of Bridge Unit in Ramboll Finland Espoo. He has planned wood bridges, for example, including VT4 between Lahti and Heinola, Hailakula crossing bridge and glulam trussed bridge, which received RIL's Bridge of the Year award in 2012.

ESPOO SPRINT BRIDGE

Lea Yläsaari
MSc civ.eng

Yläsaari has studied at Oulu University and works in Sitowise. She has worked as a constructional engineer over 30 years mainly including bridges (concrete, steel and wood).

PRO NEMUS

UKI Arkkitehdit Oy is an Oulu-based architects office with 60 designers in Oulu, Helsinki, and Jyväskylä. The company is celebrating its 60th anniversary this year. It has provided a wide variety of designs for more than 3,000 sites in its history, including cultural buildings, hospitals, industrial areas and commercial premises. In recent years, UKI Arkkitehdit have won awards in a number of architectural competitions for regional and residential designs. The creative work is guided by ethical values, sustainability and user needs.

SATAVUO SCHOOL

Tero Wéman
Architect SA-FA Chairman of the Board, Arkkitehtipalvelu Oy

Tero Wéman has been designing schools and day care centres since 2003. In addition to Laukaa eco-school, he is currently involved in several other school projects. His strengths as a designer include public building, regional and concept plans as well as designs for competitions.

SUMMER THEATRE FOR THE HUPIISAARET ISLAND

Janne Laukka is an architect and a founding partner of HALO Architects Ltd. He works and lives in Tampere, Finland. The most important works of the small office are Sami Cultural Center in Inari (2012) and Hupisaaret cultural venue in Oulu.

